

EMBASSY COURT

classicfolios limited

The brief:

Our client required a bespoke presentation solution to house a substantial volume of homeowner documents and appliance manuals for the new owners of luxury apartments within Embassy Court, St Johns Wood.

As the only company in the country with the expertise to produce custom products of this type, we were able to offer specialist advice on design, format and materials, to create a truly exceptional presentation.

The final product is stunning; perfectly reflecting the opulent styling of this top end London development.

Specification:

- Matt bonded leather with a charcoal grey, cotton Buckram lining
- Designed to fit 2 xA4 and 1xA5 customised Folios
